JUHU

ISKCON Juhu is a vibrant spiritual center in Mumbai, renowned for its beautiful temple dedicated to Lord Krishna, where visitors can experience traditional devotional practices, participate in spiritual gatherings, and immerse themselves in the peaceful ambiance of this sacred space.

GOVARDHAN ECO VILLAGE

Govardhan Ecovillage, established in 2003, spans over 100 acres in Palghar, Maharashtra, and is home to a diverse community of over 350 residents, including families, students, volunteers, and monks. The village is a unique sanctuary that harmonizes sustainable living with spiritual practices. Built with eco-friendly materials such as rammed earth and bamboo, the ecovillage promotes the principle of “Simple Living, High Thinking,” providing a serene environment where residents and visitors live in harmony with nature, the self, and the divine.

The community's commitment to ecological sustainability is evident through practices like organic farming, biogas production, and soil biotechnology for water purification. Visitors can experience traditional Indian spiritual practices, yoga, and wellness activities, while also learning about sustainable techniques in agriculture and waste management.

The architecture of Govardhan Ecovillage emphasizes natural ventilation, lighting, and comfort, enhancing the tranquil atmosphere. The village embodies the spiritual vision of Radhanath Swami, who aimed to fulfill the dream of his guru, His Divine Grace A.C. RETREAT MEDITATIONS

“If anyone fasts and observes the Kārtik-vrata according to the rules and regulations, the Yamadutas, the messengers of Yamaraja, run away from him, just as an elephant runs away by seeing a lion. This dear fast of Lord Viṣṇu is even better than performing one hundred great sacrifices that would take him to heaven because the person who observes the Kārtik-vrata goes to the spiritual world.”

Padma Purāṇa

Skanda Purāṇa

“Of the twelve months, this month is particularly dear to Śrī Kṛṣṇa. Śrī Vishnu certainly rewards the devotee who worships Him during Kārtika with residence in His own abode, even if worshipped with minimum items. Dāmodara is famous as bhakta-vatsala, and His month imbibes His characteristics: it rewards even a tiny effort with huge results.”
